

A significant number of females hold positions of deputy mayors and ward committee members in Local Governments. Many of them have been elected on the basis of their rapport with the community or their previous engagements outside the home and many of them have been nominated by the political parties to fulfill the quota obligations. On this given background, majority of the women representatives lack prior political experience which is hampering their performance and current roles as elected representatives.

PRTC, under the PLGSP's approved activities, conducted training on Transformational leadership to the elected Executive Committee Members of LGs in Siraha, Mahottari and Sarlahi at district level. Transformational leadership is a leadership approach that causes change in individuals and social systems.

